CLASS ACTIONS OVERVIEW

Bush Seyferth PLLC (BSP Law) has extensive experience defending class actions in courts around the country, in areas including product liability, consumer protection, environmental, toxic tort, construction defect, and even “unconstitutional software.” Partnering with trial and discovery counsel, our class counsel craft defense strategies aimed at efficient resolution, whether through winning early motions, defeating class certification, settling favorably, or when necessary, trial and appeal.

BSP Law’s class team brings its trial-focused strength to its defense of class actions:

- Theme development, cross-case strategy
- Coordination with product defense
- Fact investigation and offensive discovery
- Development of due-diligence facts
- Defensive discovery, including company witness preparation and e-Discovery
- Dispositive motions
- Expert discovery and motions
- Class certification motions
- Trial (including preparation and mocks)
- Embedded appellate for trial
- Facilitation, Mediation, and Settlement
- Appeal
