Professional Development & Diversity, Equity & Inclusion

In addition to practicing law, Lena is BSP's Professional Development & Diversity Director. In this role, Lena focuses on the recruitment and development of all legal staff. She also guides BSP's diversity, equity, and inclusion (DE&I) initiatives within the firm.

With respect to professional development, Lena manages associate workload capacity and allocates assignments to associates and legal professionals with an eye toward encouraging professional growth and development in addition to meeting present and future client needs. Lena organizes and facilitates dynamic training programs to mentor attorneys throughout their careers on substantive legal skills and business development. She also curates personalized marketing and professional development plans for every attorney and works with each to support their practice.

Lena drives associate recruitment through established relationships with law schools across the country in a continuous effort to develop and expand BSP's summer associate program. She also works closely with firm management and the hiring committee at BSP to support and assess BSP's hiring needs.

Lena provides strategic direction to develop BSP's goals and initiatives to foster diversity and inclusion at BSP and in the larger legal community. She works to grow, retain, and advance the number of women and diverse attorneys and professional staff at the firm. Lena oversees the Joel Stern Scholarship Fund, which provides financial support to students from diverse backgrounds who contribute to the diversity of their law school student body. For the past two years, Lena has served in a leadership role on BSP's DE&I Committee. She has organized several DE&I events for the firm, specifically BSP's Speed Networking event, which gave diverse law students the opportunity to network with in-house counsel, judges, representatives from bar associations, and other legal professionals with diverse experience and backgrounds from across the country. Lena has worked extensively to create a partnership between BSP and Project Clean Slate, a pro bono initiative with the City of Detroit. Lena regularly participates and speaks on panels and sessions focused on DE&I.

Prior Experience

Prior to joining Bush Seyferth PLLC, Lena worked as an Associate at Clark Hill PLC, where she was a part of the Immigration and Litigation Practice Groups. Lena also served as an intern at HealthCall and, within the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Michigan, interned for Chief Judge Gerald E. Rosen and the Honorable Judge Julian Abele Cook, Jr. Lena was previously a law clerk at Gonzalez, Kadro & Mitchell PLLC.

Lena received her J.D., cum laude, from Wayne State University Law School. She was Dean's Scholar and received several other honors during her exceptional academic career.

As a member of Wayne Law's Mock Trial team and the National Mock Trial team, she won the Texas Young Lawyers Association's (TYLA) regional competition and competed as a finalist at the national competition in Texas.

She also served as a member of the Transactional Law team, where she placed first in contract drafting and negotiations at the in-house competition at Wayne Law and first in drafting at the regional competition at Northwestern University Pritzker School of Law.

During her time at Wayne Law, Lena also co-founded a program to organize a forum for high school students to discuss legal and social issues with local politicians and businessmen.

Lena received her B.A. in Social Relations and Policy with a minor in Spanish Language from Michigan State University's James Madison College. There she was a member of the Executive Board, Vice President, for Alpha Kappa Psi, a professional business fraternity, and was a selected presenter for the Women and Gender undergraduate showcase.
