Community & Pro-Bono Involvement

Dylan and his wife, Taylor, are the authors of Niko in the NICU, a children's book inspired by the journey of their son, Niko, who was born at just 26 weeks weighing 1 pound, 8 ounces and spent more than 100 days in the NICU. Through the book, they hope to provide encouragement, comfort, and humor to families navigating the challenges of a NICU stay.

Building on that mission, Dylan and his wife founded Niko in the NICU, a 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization dedicated to supporting NICU families. He regularly partners with and supports Corewell Health William Beaumont University Hospital in Royal Oak, home to the largest NICU in Southeast Michigan and the hospital where Niko received his care.

Dylan serves as an ambassador for P.C.U.P.S. ("Prostate Cancer Understanding Prevention Screenings") – a charitable organization dedicated to promoting men's health and wellness through early detection screening and knowledge of symptoms, treatments, and care.

Prior Experience

Before joining Bush Seyferth PLLC, Dylan was an associate attorney at the Kitch Law Firm in Detroit, MI. At Kitch, Dylan handled high value commercial litigation cases and helped shield his clients from liability through aggressive written discovery, depositions, and dispositive motions.

Dylan received his J.D. from the Michigan State University College of Law, where he was a member of the distinguished Geoffrey Feiger Trial Practice Institute – finishing in the top of his class. In addition, Dylan was a Mock Trial Champion and finalist on the Major League Baseball Salary Arbitration Team. He received his undergraduate degree in Economics from Central Michigan University, where he played four years of Division 1 baseball.
