Prior Experience

Before joining Bush Seyferth, Rachel served as a Judicial Intern to Chief Judge Stephen J. Murphy, III of the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Michigan. Rachel also worked as a Law Clerk with Bush Seyferth throughout law school and was part of the firm's Summer Associate class of 2024. In that role, she conducted research for the Products Liability, Commercial Litigation, Class Action, and Critical Motions and Appeals practice groups, drafted motions, prepared for and observed depositions, and assisted with trial preparation.

Rachel was also a Summer Associate at Varnum LLP, where she conducted legal research and drafted motions and briefs for the firm's litigation and transactional practice groups. She gained early legal experience as a Legal Intern at Okemos Legal Group, PLLC and as an Intern at Maddin, Hauser, Roth & Heller, PC.
